Anosh Babar is seventeen years old and studying in 5th class. He has three sisters and one brother. Anosh's parents said that he is very good in studies but they were not able to get him education due to limited resources. He left his studies and helped them. After teachers visit, he again started studies. His father's name is Babar and he works on daily wages. They are living in a rental house. His mother's name is Farhat Babar. She works as a cleaner in different houses to earn money for food. They are very poor.

The Agape Pakistan Charitable Foundation we partner with is helping this boy for his education using the foundation's limited resources. We need sponsors for this child to help provide the $360 needed for annual support for him education, basic health care, and Sunday school. We ask you to prayerfully consider helping this child to be a good Christian citizen of Pakistan.
