Mehak is twelve years old and studying in 5th class. Her father is working as cleaner in a bank. Mehak has four sisters and one brother. Her mother's name is Bushra and she has a heart condition. That's why she can't work and most of the money is spent on her medicines. Her father does not earn enough to afford their daily expenses of their children. They live in a very small home, in which two families are living there.

The Agape Pakistan Charitable Foundation we partner with is helping this girl for her education using the foundation's limited resources. We need sponsors for this child to help provide the $360 needed for annual support for her education, basic health care, and Sunday school. We ask you to prayerfully consider helping this child to be a good Christian citizen of Pakistan.
