Usman Azeem is five years old. He is studying in Nursery class. He has only one brother. His father's name is Azeem and he works as a laborer on daily wages. His mother's name is Saira Azeem and she is a housewife. They don't have their own house. His parents' earning is not enough to fulfill the educational needs of their children, but they have a strong wish to educate their children.

The Agape Pakistan Charitable Foundation we partner with is helping this boy for his education using the foundation's limited resources. We need sponsors for this child to help provide the $360 needed for annual support for his education, basic health care, and Sunday school. We ask you to prayerfully consider helping this child to be a good Christian citizen of Pakistan.
